

Lewis County Public Health & Social Services

News Release

For immediate release: October 14, 2020

For more information contact:

lcphsspio@lewiscountywa.gov

Two More Lewis County Deaths Attributed to COVID-19

Chehalis, WA – Lewis County Public Health & Social Services (LCPHSS) confirmed today that two more Lewis County residents have died due to complications related to COVID-19. Both residents were in their 80s. Neither was hospitalized at the time of their death. This brings the number of deaths attributed to COVID-19 in Lewis County to 10.

To date, 649 Lewis County residents have been diagnosed with COVID-19, including these two persons. COVID-19 patients include residents of the Twin Cities; towns in the east, west, and south parts of the county; as well as rural Lewis County.

For current information on COVID-19 in Lewis County, follow @LCPHSS on Twitter, <https://www.facebook.com/lcphss/> and visit <https://phsscovid19.lewiscountywa.gov/>

#